

Last week I informed you about the 3 remaining GTO-display models (blue, yellow and silver), all limited to 200 pcs.

As you may remember, the red version was already produced last year.

Because of the very high demand for it, I did not receive any of the red ones.

The blue, yellow and silver version are also pre-sold, but -as a compensation for missing the red ones- I was able to get just a couple of the blue, yellow and silver ones (see below).
